BUSINESS MEN'S LEAGUE .- About filty of the representative business men of the city met last night in the Business Men's League rooms for the purpose of taking suitable sction in respect to the memory of the late Noble Lindsey, for a long time one of the most prominent merchants of this section. Mr. M. B. Harlow, president, announced in a few appropriate remarks the death of Mr. Lindsey, who had seen a director of the league. Ex-Mayor Henry Straues moved the appointment of a committee to prepare memorial resolutions, which was unanimously agreed to, and the following gentlemen were named as the committre: Heory Strauss, Herbert Bryant, G. Wm. Ramsay. A D. Brockett, Mar-shell King and Wm. F. Carne.

The committee retired and in a short time presented resolutions expressive of the regret manifested by the entire community at the death of Mr. Lindsev and setting forth the fact that he was a public-spirited citizen, a far-seeing merchant, cautious and broad-minded, and a gentleman of integrity

After appropriate tributes to the de-Mesers Strauss, Eichberg and Carne, the resolutions were upani mously adopted and the meeting adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

DEATH OF MR. SWETNAM .- Charles well-known and F. Swetnam, a well-known and e-teemed resident of Fairfax county, died at his home at Burke's station early yesterday atternoon after a protracted illuess, mention of which has beretofore been made in the Gazette. Mr. Swetnam was about tixty years of age and is survived by a widow and family. Deceased suffered, it is said, from Bright's disease and about two weeks ago was stricken with paralysis and never rallied from the effect. Mr. Swetnam at one timewas associated with the grocery firm of Carr & Swetnam in Later he removed to Borke's station, where he had since resided. He was a member of Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum. His funeral will take place from Lee Chapel, Fairfax county, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

POLICE COURT.-The following cases were disposed of today:
Ollie Sykes, charged with disorderly conduct and with injuring the property of Annie Branton, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to

Emma Arnell, charged with abusive lan-guage, was fined $5. Three young men, charged with shooting a pistol at a little boy on Monday night, were discharged, as it was shown that there was UNIQUE SERVICE .- At the Baptist Courch, on New Year's Eve, commencing at 10 o'clock, there will be a very unique service, something entirely new to Alexandria. The musical programme will be very elaborate, comprising solos, duets and quartots, as well as the standard congregational hymns. Rev. Dr. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church, will preach the sermen on this occasion. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Hunt, is making every effort to have this meeting interesting, and nothing will be spared in making this service everything that is worthy of the religious people of Alexandria. All are cordially invited.

THE O. D. & G. . R. R -The Old Dominion and Great Falls R. R. Co. has completed its right of way through Fairfax county, by condemnation or otherwise, and the deeds are being re-corded. Steps will be taken at once to condemn through Alexandria county in cases where the right of way has not been given.—[Fairfax Herald.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washing-ton yesterday to Charles A. Sesbiom and Ruth Nayland, both of Somerset, and to Da-vid M. Moten and Susie Henderson, both of Loudoun county.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS, -Mechanics Lodge No. 3, Knights of Pythias, held a very interesting meeting lest night. The election of officers for the new term was held with the following result: C. C., L D. Sullivan; V. C., E S. Feagans; P., V. C. Moore; M. of W., F. J. Tanner; K. of R. & S., E. R. Boyer; M. of F., J. S. Renner; M. of E., George W. Bontz; M. of A., M. E. Parker; I. G., Wm. Barnett; O. G., J. M. Weils; trustees, V. C. Moore, A. F. Baccigalupo and George H. Hinken. Ernest R. Boyer was re-elected representative to the Grand Lodge of Virginia, which convenes in Hampton February 19. The rank of knightbood was conferred on two candidates and several applications for membership were received.

RED MEN.-Osceola Tribe No. 1, I O. R. M., at their wigwam in the hunting grounds of Alexandria, last evening elected the following chiefs to serve as officers during Great Sun of Discovery 410: Prophet, T. F Jeff-rson; Sachem, minded, and a gentleman of integrity in all his dealings. The sincere sympothy of the league was tendered the sorrowing family. It was resolved that the business men of the community attend the funeral in a body, and that the Business Men's League hall be hung in mourning for thirty days.

OPERA HOUSE .- "Why Smith Left OPERA HOUSE,—"Why Smith Left s. m. and 7 55 p. m. Open at 8 00 a. m. and Home" is a clean, wholesome and highly entertaining farce. The fun hinges on a series of domestic complications but with no suspicion of vulgarity about it. Broadhurst's plays are exceptionally free from the suggestive unwholesome tendencies of the modern stage. A strong cast including Dean Raymond, Margaret Wycherly, Forrest Seabury, Kate Griffiths, May Thomp-son, Edward West, Donald Harold, Fred W Cousins, May Kintzing Ger-trude Millington, Iva Merlyn and Jane Elbing will be in the cast at the Opera House tomorrow night.

DEATH OF A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN. Mr. Joseph H. Hunter, au old Alexandrian, died at the residence of his son, Mr. E B. Hunter, at Mount Hope, D. C., on Wednesday. The deceased was a son of the late Robert Hunter, and was, with his brother Wilkerson (since deceased), associated with his father in Eva Baker and Walter Posey, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, forfeited $5 cach by failing to appear.

Samuel Madison, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

AEGUMENT HEARD.-Judge Nicol, at Manassas. yesterday heard argument on a motion to quash, and demurrer to information in the nature of a quo warranto in the case of the Commonwealth vs. the Potomac River Power Company for the forfeiture of its charter. The demurrer and motion were both overruled. Messrs. A. W. Armstrong, J. E. Clements and C. C Carlin appeared for the Commonwealth, and Mes W. Moore, D. S. Mackell and Mr. Holli-day for the Power Company.

WHIST CLUB.-The Ladies' Whist lub met last night at the residence of Mrs. A. W. Armstrong and, of course, was most charmingly and beautifully entertained. Close attention to the game by the gentlemen was absolutely out of the question, the beauty, grace and wit of the ladies being more engaging than the prosy rules of whist. The prizes were won by Mrs. C. W. Wattles and Mr. W. B. Smoot and the consolation prize by Miss Holcombe.

CONTRACT AWARDED .- Mr. W. H. Winston has been awarded the contract for the new buildings and improvements for the Southern Railway Company in this city. The work is to be quite extensive, as heretofore stated. Mesers. Gilroy and Howard will do the brickwork.
